- Electromagnetic Mast for Yellow Road, Hilltown – Important meeting with planning applicant, Harlequin: Over 100 local residents recently attended two consecutive community meetings with Croilvee Councillors last week. At each meeting all residents voiced their objections to the mast planned for the Yellow Road and called for an alternative site to be used which is not immediately adjacent to residential dwellings nor disruptive to surrounding landscapes. The planning applicant, Harlequin, has agreed to attend a third community Meeting next Thursday 19th February at 8pm at the GAA Clubrooms, Castlewellan Road, Hilltown. If you have concerns about the health or environmental impact of the electromagnetic tower planned for Hilltown then please come along to this meeting. Your help in spreading the word about the meetings and encouraging attendance would be most appreciated.
- Chapel cleaners for Ballymaghery in February: Maureen Rooney, Cecilia Grant, Susie Hynes, Geraldine Murphy, Colette McAteer, Frances Rooney, Susie Brannigan
