

Hospital Chaplaincy in the Southern Trust in These Days

While chaplains are not permitted to do routine hospital visits at the moment, they are still available for emergency or urgent visits. To call a chaplain at any time, just ring the relevant hospital and ask for the chaplain on call. In addition, if you or a family member are in hospital, or indeed if you work in the hospital, and you would like to chat with a chaplain, there is a chaplaincy phone service available daily:

From 10am - 12 noon, call 028-38334444 From 2pm - 4pm, call 028-30835000

GET THE DIGITAL EDITION OF THE MESSENGER FOR FREE!

A combination of 'cocooning' and the travel restrictions currently in place all around the country mean that many readers of The Sacred Heart Messenger cannot access their monthly 'little red book'.

Therefore, during this coronavirus crisis we are delighted to make the digital edition of The Messenger available FREE OF CHARGE until we return to normal delivery and we will send you a link to view The Messenger on your laptop, tablet or mobile phone.

Please send your email request to:

What is Spiritual Communion?

Spiritual Communion is a way to be united with Christ when we are not able to physically receive the Eucharist. St Thomas Aquinas described it as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament, and a loving embrace as though we had received Him." This was a practice very dear to the heart of St Alphonsus Liguori, founder of the Redemptorist Order. In this time of uncertainty, when we are encouraged to practice "Social Distancing," let's use St Alphonsus' practice to be united in Spirit and in Prayer with one another and with Christ.

How to make a Spiritual Communion:

- Start with the Sign of the Cross.
- Read and reflect on the readings of the day (you can go to <https://www.catholicbishops.ie/readings/>) or follow us livestreamed on www.clonduffparish.com
- Mass times: 9.00am (Monday to Friday) Saturday at 6.00pm and Sunday at 11.00am in St John the Evangelist Church, Ballymaghera
- Pray an Act of Spiritual Communion, such as this one inspired by St Alphonsus Liguori

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.
Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You;
never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

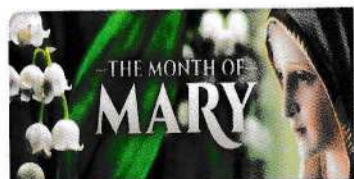

- Offer a Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Rosary Initiative Archbishop Eamon Martin invites and encourages families in our Parishes to pray the Rosary, or even a decade of the Rosary, every day during the month of May.

This year the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes has been cancelled due to concerns around the Coronavirus. Maybe when we pray the Rosary or even a decade of the Rosary we could remember the sick and all who had hoped to make the Pilgrimage to Lourdes.

We remember too those in our Parishes who are sick, housebound, those in Hospital and Hospice, those feeling lonely and isolated at this time and all who care for them.

St John's Church, Ballymaghera will reopen for private prayer Mon to Fri 11.00am to 6pm Sat 11.00am to 5.30pm and Sun 12 noon to 6pm. Please follow the notices.

'Get Well Wishes' to Fr Charlie who sustained a broken arm in a slight tumble on Sunday. Contrary to speculation the incident happened before the birthday, though the celebrations went ahead as planned.

Studies indicate that those who receive 'Get Well Cards' have 80% faster recovery rate regardless of age!

Happy Birthday to a Wonderful Priest
