Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A prophet is only despised in his own country.

Mark 6:1-6

A special word of thanks to Fr. Charles Byrne for inviting my family and me to the 6.00pm Mass on Saturday 29th June to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of my Ordination to the priesthood in the Church of St. John the Evangelist on the 9th June 1974. It was lovely to celebrate with Fr. Charles and Monsignor John Clarke. As always, the singing of choir was outstanding. Sincere thanks to Mrs Eileen Mooney and all the members of the choir for all the practices that were necessary to attain such perfection. Thanks also to the sacristan Des McNeill, the reader, the soloist and to those who brought the gifts to the altar. It is always enriching to return to Hilltown, Ballygorian, and Lenish where my faith has been nourished over the years. To all those who helped in the school, Mrs Smith, members of staff of the school, members of the Parish Pastoral Council and everyone who made preparations in the school for such a beautiful spread of food and served it. It was a great opportunity to meet and chat with the parishioners. It is difficult to believe that 50 years have passed, and we give thanks to God for what has been and we live in faith and hope.

Go raibh mile maith agaibh. Canon Francis.
